Statement of accounts

Financial statements for the year ended 31 May 2014 has been prepared and audited by KPMG LLP. Please refer to the attachment.

Activities

SymAsia continues to offer our donors a platform to fulfil their philanthropic aspirations. We are committed to partnering donors in a strategic approach to their charitable giving to optimize the impact of their donations. SymAsia's commitment to our donors goes beyond administrative and operational support by also providing support in the areas of due diligence and grant-making. There are currently twenty Donor Advised Funds established under SymAsia.

In November 2013, Credit Suisse held the third annual Philanthropists Forum around the theme of "Strategies for effective Philanthropy". President Tony Tan Keng Yam was the Guest of Honour for the event. The Forum featured representatives from key supranational organizations who spoke on key philanthropic needs in Asia, and also leading private philanthropists and philanthropy experts representing some of the best known international philanthropic foundations. It explored strategies aimed at effectively deploying and leveraging donors' philanthropic assets as social needs continued to grow throughout the region, and laid out for donors, some practical measures to assure success in charitable giving and social investment. Panel discussions featuring case studies showcased the best practices which had produced good results for businesses and individual donors engaged in the philanthropy space.

Plans and commitments

SymAsia's focus for the year 2015 will be to continue our commitment in enabling our donors to maximize their giving and impact in the region. We aim to do so by working closely with donors to structure their philanthropic strategies individually and/or with their corporations. We will also continue to establish strong relationships with our charity sector partners in Singapore and in the region and hope to grow our database of charity partners.

SymAsia will continue to organize networking roundtables and seminars for our donors and clients to encourage giving and generate interest in the philanthropy sector in Singapore and the region. We are planning more philanthropy themed events for 2014 - 2015.

Conflict of Interest

SymAsia has in place policies and procedures to manage and avoid situations of conflict of interest. Staff and board members are advised to avoid situations that may give rise to conflict of interest and are required to make full declaration and disclosure should it inevitably arise. This is to ensure that all parties will act in the best interest of the foundation.
